

You're Invited!

Dear Conservation Commission Members:

The Laconia Conservation Commission invites you to a

Countywide Input Session on Land Conservation

An open discussion with other Conservation Commissions within Belknap County on how your town approaches and implements land conservation. No formal presentations; just an open discussion.

Why: Local Land Conservation and Inter-municipal Conservation Projects were identified by towns as topics of interest during the County Commissioners' 2010 Listening Tour. In order to further discussions and help to set the stage for working together, the Laconia Conservation Commission would like to host a meeting of members from Conservation Commissions in other towns within Belknap County.

Where: Belknap County Complex
34 County Drive (Commissioners' Entrance)
Laconia, NH

When: January 31st
Start Time: 6:30 PM
Snow Date: February 7th

Registration: Please RSVP by
January 24th
